THE CENTIPEDE

A centipede will certainly need
A hundred stripy socks
But what will he do when he wears them out
With climbing trees and rocks?
What will he do when his socks wear through?
When all of his socks wear out?
He'll sit in a heap and start to weep
As his mother begins to shout
Here's what his mother will shout
Whenever his socks wear out

I bought you ten, bought you twenty
Bought you thirty, forty, fifty
Bought you sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety
Bought you a hundred socks
So off to bed now Sonny do
You think I'm made of money
Until I can afford to buy you more
You can keep your feet right off the floor

A centipede will certainly need
A hundred purple boots
But what will he do when his boots wear through
With wriggling under roots?
What will he do when his boots wear through?
When all of his boots wear out?
He'll sit in a heap and start to weep
As his father begins to shout
Here's what his father will shout
Whenever his boots wear out

I bought you ten, bought you twenty
Bought you thirty, forty, fifty
Bought you sixty, seventy, eighty, ninety
Bought you a hundred boots
So off to bed now Sonny do
You think I'm made of money
Until I can afford to buy you more
You can keep your feet right off the floor
