Oh the grand old Duke of York, he had ten thousand men
 He marched them up to the top of the hill, and he marched them down again
 And when they were up, they were up, and when they were down, they were down
 And when they were only half way up, they were neither up nor down
 Oh the grand old Duke of York, he had ten thousand men
 They played their pipes to the top of the hill, and they played them down again
 And when they were up, they were up, and when they were down, they were down
 And when they were only half way up, they were neither up nor down
 Oh the grand old Duke of York, he had ten thousand men
 They banged their drums to the top of the hill, and they banged them down again
 And when they were up, they were up, and when they were down, they were down
