It's News Time

It's news time, the six o'clock news
It's news time, with reports and views
We're right up to date, from Bethlehem town
Where there's a new King, he's about to be crowned
It's news time, the six o'clock news

Here are the headlines, 'No more room at the inn'
Here are the headlines, 'Sheep lost and wandering'
Here are the headlines, 'A new King born today'
Here are the headlines, let's shout hip hooray!

It's news time, the six o'clock news
It's news time, with reports and views
We're right up to date, from Bethlehem town
Where there's a new King, he's about to be crowned
It's news time, the six o'clock news

To our live reporter, 'For up to date news'
To our live reporter, 'To hear shepherds' views'
To our live reporter, 'For the inn keeper's thoughts'
To our live reporter, what the wise men brought!

It's news time, the six o'clock news
It's news time, with reports and views
We're right up to date, from Bethlehem town
Where there's a new King, he's about to be crowned
It's news time, the six o'clock news

It's news time, the six o'clock news
It's news time, with reports and views
We're right up to date, from Bethlehem town
Where there's a new King, he's about to be crowned
It's news time, the six o'clock news
It's news time, the six o'clock news

The Shepherds' Story

We were lying on the hillside, looking after the sheep
When a bright light awoke us, from our deep, deep sleep
A heavenly angel appeared, with a message for us all
A new king had been born, in a lowly stall

Go into town
To find the baby king newly crowned
Tell everyone, spread it all around
Let the people know what's going down

We ran down the hillside, following the light of a star Leaving all the sheep to wander, yonder, afar
An appointment with new royalty, we had to keep
We must see the baby, there's no time for sleep

Go into town
To find the baby king newly crowned
Tell everyone, spread it all around
Let the people know what's going down

We ran through the streets, of the busy town
To find the holy child, with the golden crown
We finally found the place, where the new king lay
Born in a stable there, he was sleeping on the hay

Go into town
To find the baby king newly crowned
Tell everyone, spread it all around
Let the people know what's going...
Go into town
To find the baby king newly crowned
Tell everyone, spread it all around
Let the people know what's going down

The Wise Mens' Story

We are three wise men, we come from afar
Crossing the desert, to follow a star
Climbing the mountains, we look up in awe
It's the Magi's mystical tour

We started from the palace, of Herod the king
Bearing gifts, such beautiful things
By camel train we rode rough, for many a mile
Always in single file

We are three wise men, we come from afar
Crossing the desert, to follow a star
Climbing the mountains, we look up in awe
It's the Magi's mystical tour

To Bethlehem town, where we looked for the Inn
Frankincense, gold, and myrrh, for him
We finally found the stable, simple and bare
Jesus was lying there

We are three wise men, we come from afar
Crossing the desert, to follow a star
Climbing the mountains, we look up in awe
It's the Magi's mystical tour

We are three wise men, we come from afar
Crossing the desert, to follow a star
Climbing the mountains, we look up in awe
It's the Magi's mystical tour

The Innkeeper

There were no rooms, no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze, anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

Since first thing this morning
I've been rushed off my feet
The inn has been busy
The crowd made me dizzy
You couldn't move in that street
All looking for somewhere to sleep

There were no rooms, no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze, anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

The sign was up in the window
There are 'No-Vacancies here'
They still knocked on my door
I told them the score
I thought I'd made it clear
We're absolutely full, I fear

There were no rooms, no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze, anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

Mary and her husband Joseph
Were the very last guests to call
'I'm sorry' I said, 'I haven't a bed
Just the stable, but that's all
So they rested in the stall

There were no rooms, no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze, anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

There were no rooms... no rooms at the inn
I really couldn't squeeze... anyone in
Everyone's arrived, in Bethlehem town
But there were no rooms, none could be found

Mary and Joseph

In the town of Nazareth
An angel came to Mary to say
You shall give birth to a golden child
On this very special day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

In the town of Nazareth,
An angel came to Joseph to say
Mary's babe is a golden child
And this will be a special day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Mary and Joseph travelled afar
To Bethlehem, Joseph's hometown
No room at the inn but in a stable bare
Amongst the hay they settled down

There the little boy was borne
In a manger, as the angel had said
Mary's boy was a golden child
Lying on this stable bed
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Peace on Earth, a day of joy
Shepherds, wise men, gifts they did bring
For this babe was a golden child
All welcome to the new born King
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Everyone be happy, everyone rejoice
Listen as the angels say
Everyone dance, and sing in good voice
This is the first, Christmas Day
The boy is the Son of God, His name is Jesus

Tidings of Great Joy

In Bethlehem town, now we do say
On this very special first Christmas Day
Everyone celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

Born in a stable for the World to see
There in a manger baby Jesus is He
Everyone celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

Sweet baby Jesus does soundly sleep
With Mary and Joseph warm amongst the sheep
Everyone celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

Three wise men, and three shepherds too
Have come to visit, and rejoice with you
Everyone celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy

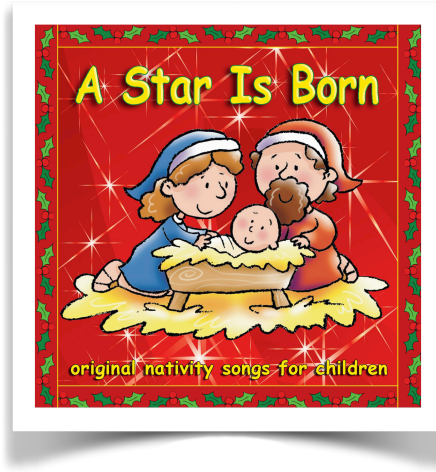

In Bethlehem town, now we do say
On this very special first Christmas Day
Everyone celebrate the birth of the boy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy
It's time to be happy, tidings of great joy
